STRESS-FREE THANKSGIVING TIPS FOR TIME-CRUNCHED HOSTS

While gathering for Thanksgiving is intended to be a joyous occasion, everyone who has hosted the feast knows it can also come with a lot of stress, and expenses.

The good news is that whether you're a Gen Z-er hosting your first Friendsgiving on a budget or you're a busy family preparing for guests, there is a lot to be thankful for this year.

That's because this holiday season, Sam's Club's private brand Member's Mark is unveiling an innovative pre-cooked Thanksgiving meal that is ready to serve in under two hours, priced under $100 for up to 10 people and available to be delivered. Crafted with mindfully made premium ingredients, the meal offers convenience without compromising quality, ensuring a stress-free, memorable and delicious Thanksgiving. Here are the traditional Thanksgiving favorites that the meal includes:

- Member's Mark Smoked Turkey
- Member's Mark Yukon Gold Mashed Potatoes
- Member's Mark Pumpkin Pie
- Member's Mark Sweet Potato Mash
- Member's Mark Brussels Sprouts
- Member's Mark Yeast Dinner Rolls
- Member's Mark Macaroni and Cheese
- Member's Mark Cranberry Crunch Salad

Along with purchasing a convenient Thanksgiving meal, here are a few additional ways to eliminate stress around holiday prep:

1. Start Early: Get your shopping and other hosting tasks done in advance. For example, don't wait until Thanksgiving Day to tidy up your home. Doing a deep clean in advance can help ensure your kitchen is organized and ready for the big day, and that guests feel comfortable and welcomed. Set the table and do any decorating you have planned the evening beforehand.

2. Save on Festive Flair: You can further reduce costs by going DIY with items like centerpieces and seasonal wreaths, or by shopping with retailers offering great value, such as Sam's Club, which provides solutions for flowers, décor, wine and other hosting essentials.

3. Rely on Friends and Family: Even if you have the main meal covered, it's still nice to get a little help from guests, who will likely ask if they can bring something. Don't be shy about asking them to contribute an appetizer or beverage!

For more information on the Member's Mark Holiday Meal, visit samsclub.com.

By eliminating holiday hassles, you can focus on what really matters, giving thanks and spending time with the people you care about. (StatePoint)

DONNIE IS GREAT YOUNG DOG THAT DESERVES A FOREVER HOME

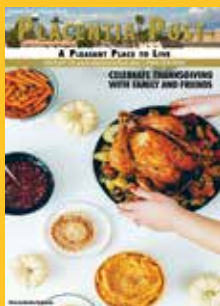

Mission Viejo Animal Services recently rescued a young dog named Donnie that was about to be euthanized because he was the longest resident at a high-intake shelter.

"We think the staff and volunteers at that shelter really loved this dog, so they kept giving him chances at being adopted," said Director of Animal Services Brynn Lavisson. "Sadly, however, as of November his time was running out, so as soon as we heard about him, we transported him to our center for a second chance at adoption."

Likely an Australian Cattle Dog and German Shepherd mix, Donnie is about 3 years old and is an all-around great dog. He loves other dogs and would probably be fine living with kids. He would make a great walking or hiking partner because he loves exercise but will walk nicely by your side.

At only 40 pounds, Donnie is a nice size, too. MVAS wants to ensure that Donnie does not spend another four months in a shelter, so stop by and meet Donnie today. He will make an excellent canine addition to your family!

For more information, call 949-470-3045. The Mission Viejo Animal Services Center is at 28095 Hillcrest.

PAGEANT OF THE MASTERS PAYS HOMAGE TO CALIFORNIA ART & MUSEUMS

The Festival of Arts is thrilled to announce tickets for the highly anticipated 2025 Pageant of the Masters production, themed "Gold Coast: Treasures of California," will be available for purchase starting December 1, 2024. This brand new production will lead audiences on a coastal journey, showcasing California's rich history and artistic legacy through "living pictures" that transform iconic paintings and sculptures into live stage art. Performances will take place nightly from July 5 to August 29, 2025. Tickets start at $47, and may be purchased online at www.PageantTickets.com or by phone at (800) 487-3378.

"Gold Coast" marks a new chapter for the Pageant, with a theme featuring a collection of masterpieces from California's most prestigious museums and iconic monuments from the state's most recognizable cities. This fresh perspective will re-imagine iconic works from around the Golden State, breathing new life into paintings, sculptures, photographs, and other works of art that capture the state's diverse heritage and scenic beauty. Iconic pieces from the Getty, Los Angeles County Museum of Art, Norton Simon Museum, and many other cultural institutions will be re-created with the Pageant's blend of theatricality, storytelling, and visual artistry.

"California is home to exceptional art museums and landmarks, each one offering treasures that tell the story of our state," shared Pageant Director Diane Challis Davy. Describing her inspiration for this year's theme, she added "After visiting the Hilbert Museum, I felt inspired to celebrate California's artistic contributions and to encourage audiences to explore the gems in their own backyard."

To select the works in next summer's production, Challis Davy and her team of volunteer researchers spent hours exploring online collections and traveling around the state to view potential works of art in-person. As luck would have it, they didn't need to look too far to find the perfect way to start the show. Susan Hoehn, a longtime

Lee Blair, "Mary by the Sea, Overlooking Palos Verdes" (1934)

Festival of Arts exhibitor and a California native, has been delighting Festival patrons for years with her series of paintings inspired by people-watching at museums. Challis Davy shared "As we were considering the many roles museums play, we thought Susan's artwork was the perfect way to introduce our theme. It'll be exciting to showcase her work on the Pageant stage!"

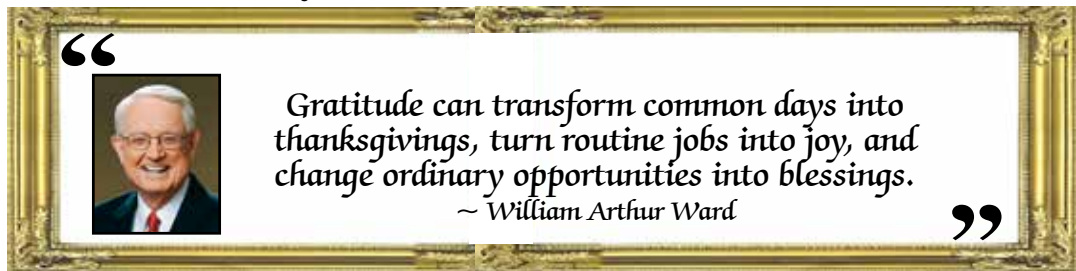

In addition to Hoehn's paintings, "Gold Coast" will bring to life a variety of California's most celebrated art and historical landmarks. Highlights include Claude Monet's "In the Woods at Giverny" from the Los Angeles County Museum of Art (LACMA) and Diego Rivera's striking mural, "Allegory of California," in San Francisco. The Norton Simon Museum will be represented with Edgar Degas' famous bronze sculpture, "Little Dancer, Aged Fourteen." From Hearst Castle, audiences will marvel at Emmanuel Fremiet's gilt bronze "Chariot of Minerva" and the Roman Pool sculptures, designed by Julia Morgan.

These iconic pieces are just part of the unforgettable experience awaiting audiences at the 2025 Pageant of the Masters. Set in the stunning 2,600-seat Irvine Bowl amphitheater, the production will unfold beneath Laguna Beach's starry skies. Featuring live music, captivating narration, and breathtaking illusions, next summer's Pageant will deliver a dynamic and visually stunning performance, bringing together California's rich artistic history and the magic of live theater in a way never seen before.

The 2025 Pageant of the Masters production "Gold Coast: Treasures of California" will run nightly from July 5 through August 29, 2025. Early ticket purchase is recommended, the Pageant is highly sought after and draws art enthusiasts from around the world. Advance tickets go on sale December 1, 2024, starting at $47 (price includes services charges). For updates, follow the Festival on social media @FestivalPageant and visit www.foapom.com.

WHY KENTUCKY IS THE PERFECT VACATION DESTINATION FOR HOLIDAY SHOPPERS

Part of the fun of a Kentucky vacation is finding something truly unique to bring home. Here are some Kentucky-crafted holiday gift ideas that are easily shipped to loved ones so you can share your Kentucky experience.

For those looking to satisfy a sweet tooth, one of Kentucky's best-known delicacies is its bourbon balls. This spirited confection combines bourbon, pecans, butter and vanilla into a compact ball covered in chocolate, making it impossible to have just one. There's a good reason candy makers and bourbon distillers from across the state regularly ship hundreds of boxes all over the world.

Ale-8-One is a great gift idea for those who love refreshing beverages. This iconic ginger and citrus flavored soft drink, born in Winchester, Kentucky nearly a century ago, has been a beloved beverage for generations. Its unique blend of ginger, caramel and spices offers a refreshing and tangy taste. Whether enjoyed over ice, mixed with a splash of bourbon, or simply sipped straight from the bottle, Ale-8-One is a perfect choice for any occasion.

For truly one-of-a-kind gifts, visit Kentucky's world-class arts enclaves, which showcase the works of hundreds of Kentucky artisans.

Kentucky Artisan Center at Berea is a vibrant hub offering a diverse selection of handcrafted gifts, from exquisite pottery and intricate jewelry to stunning wood carvings and beautiful textiles.

The Appalachian Artisan Center in Hindman highlights the beauty of Appalachia through its handmade treasures. From magnificent quilts to custom-made dulcimers, metalworks and more, there are plenty of unique and meaningful gifts for you to discover.

Paducah in far western Kentucky is widely known as the home of the National Quilt Museum, but its downtown is also the place to find dozens of quirky little shops with unique gift offerings.

Interested in crafting that bourbon cocktail yourself? Kentucky has you covered. There are hundreds of shops and bourbon-related attractions that have what you need to make the perfect old fashioned, hot toddy or mint julep.

By giving a gift this holiday season that is truly a piece of authentic Kentucky, you can share your travel experience with loved ones back home. (StatePoint)

WINE LEGENDS CAYMUS AND DAOU IMPRESS AT WEST END, PLUS MANGIA E BEVI PIZZA CHAMPION TORE TRUPIANO

Story and photos by Rico Cassoni

Del Mar's West End Bar & Kitchen Proprietor Sal Ercolano recently hosted two wine dinners featuring Caymus Vineyards and Daou Family Estates. Each winery is legendary in its own way, as are the five-course wine dinner menus crafted by Executive Chef Brian Gist. Caymus Vineyards, Mary Gavin, CA Regional Accounts & Strategic Retail Manager narrated the Caymus Wine Dinner with help from Brooke Malpede, San Diego Marketing Mgr. Daou Family Estate, Daniel Brunner, Western Region Mgr. narrated the Daou Wine Dinner and was assisted by Eryn Schnitzler, Bus. Dev. Mgr, SoCal, and RNDC, John Parker, Senior Sales Mgr.

Caymus Vineyards was founded in 1972 by Chuck Wagner and his late parents, Lorna and Charlie Sr., in Rutherford—a Napa Valley region celebrated for its ideal grape-growing climate. Over 50 years later, Caymus Vineyards has become a Napa Valley institution. Caymus is one of only two wineries to earn Wine Spectator's Wine of the Year award twice—a testament to its legendary quality and dedication. Its Special Selection Cabernet Sauvignon received this honor with the 1984 vintage in 1989 and the 1990 vintage in 1994.

Under Chuck's leadership, Caymus grew into Wagner Family Wines to also include Conundrum, Mer Soleil, Emmolo, Red Schooner, Sea Sun, Bonanza, and Caymus-Suisun brands. These brands showcase diverse styles, from Cabernet Sauvignon to Chardonnay and distinctive blends. Today, Chuck's children are deeply involved in the family business. Charlie Wagner oversees winemaking for Conundrum, Red Schooner, and Mer Soleil, while Jenny Wagner leads Emmolo and The Walking Fool winemaking. Additionally, Chuck's other son, Joe Wagner, founded Copper Cane Wines & Provisions, producing Quilt, Belle Glos, Elouan, and Boen brands and is also the winemaker.

As Caymus celebrates its 50th anniversary with the 2022 vintage, the winery remains rooted in Napa Valley, producing wines that reflect decades of expertise. Visitors to the winery can experience the Wagner family's multi-generational dedication to quality. See more at caymus.com

Daou Family Estates was founded by brothers Georges and Daniel Daou, inspired by their father, Joseph, whose love of wine sparked their own passion. Originally from Lebanon, the family relocated to France due to civil unrest, and later, the brothers moved to San Diego, attended UCSD, and founded a successful tech company. In 2008, after selling the business, they pursued their winemaking dream in Paso Robles. After scouting over 200 locations worldwide, they found their ideal terroir on DAOU Mountain—a site with limestone-rich, calcareous soils and a climate akin to Napa Valley.

Daniel's meticulous winemaking philosophy combines scientific precision with artistic vision. Daou's flagship wine, Soul of a Lion, honors their father's legacy. This age-worthy Cabernet, crafted from free-run juice and aged in custom bois rosé French oak barrels for 22 months, consistently achieves some

Daniel's commitment extends beyond DAOU Mountain, promoting Paso Robles as a serious Cabernet region through the Paso Robles CAB Collective. DAOU wines, crafted with proprietary yeasts and expert practices, have redefined Paso Robles winemaking, gaining global acclaim.

In a recent milestone, Treasury Wine Estates acquired Daou Vineyards in a deal valued up to $1 billion. This acquisition includes DAOU Mountain Estate and 400 acres in Paso Robles, with Georges and Daniel Daou remaining actively involved, with Daniel as chief winemaker. Find more info at daouvineyards.com.

The Caymus Wine Dinner began with Smoked Salmon and Caviar paired with Emmolo Sauvignon Blanc, followed by a Bib Lettuce Wedge Salad accompanied by Mer Soleil Unoaked Chardonnay. The entrée courses included a tender braised pork shoulder with wild mushroom risotto paired with Sea Sun Pinot Noir. The main course featured a grilled New York strip steak with a veal demi-glace, sauteed green beans and golden-baked pommes duchesse, perfectly complemented by the flagship 2022 Caymus 50th Anniversary Cabernet Sauvignon. The dinner concluded with a rich chocolate decadence cake and marinated mixed berries, paired with The Walking Fool Red Blend.

The elegant Daou Wine Dinner opened with Ahi Tuna Tartare paired with Daou Sauvignon Blanc and an arugula salad with Granny Smith apples and goat cheese paired with Daou Reserve Chardonnay. The entrées included a pistachio-crust rack of lamb with fennel risotto paired with Daou Reserve Cabernet. The main course was a braised beef short rib with truffle Parmesan Yukon mashed potatoes and roasted carrots, exquisitely paired with the flagship 2021 Soul of a Lion Bordeaux Blend. A dark chocolate almond torte with blackberry compote rounded out the evening, paired with the Pessimist Red Blend.

Mangia e Bevi's Pizza Champion Tore Trupiano

Tore Trupiano, Co-Proprietor of Mangia e Bevi in Oceanside, CA, earned top honors at the inaugural California Pizza Challenge (CPC), winning first place in the Pan division and securing a runner-up position in the Grand Champion event. Hosted by the U.S. Pizza Team and sponsored by REAL California Milk, the competition took place at the California Restaurant Show in Los Angeles, showcasing top pizzaiolos for a spot in the World Pizza Championship in Parma, Italy.

Trupiano's award-winning Fig Illusion Pizza features a Roman/focaccia hybrid crust topped post-bake with a California-inspired blend: baby wild arugula, Real California stracciatella, 18-month prosciutto di Parma, and striped tiger and mission figs tossed in blood orange olive oil and finished with pomegranate arils, balsamic glaze, and black pepper. "This one is for Oceanside," Trupiano said, crediting precision baking and high-quality ingredients for his success. His creativity and passion earned him well-deserved recognition on a national stage. Congratulations to Tore on this fantastic achievement! Get more info at mangiaoceaside.com.

SPIN'S DENIM & DIAMONDS GALA RAISES OVER $300,000 FOR ORANGE COUNTY FAMILIES

Photos by Ann Chatillon

It was a picturesque evening as over 200 supporters of Costa Mesa-based Serving People in Need (SPIN) arrived at the charming Red Barn at Strawberry Farms in Irvine. The valet line was a sight to see as guests traded their "horsepower" for the country charm of the barnyard. The event, aptly named "Denim and Diamonds," promised an evening filled with heart, boots, and the joy of giving—and it certainly delivered.

SPIN has been making a difference for nearly 40 years, placing homeless and near-homeless families into permanent housing and providing critical support services. The Denim and Diamonds Gala honored this legacy, beginning with a heartfelt welcome to the Boyce family, the founders of SPIN. The family received a standing ovation from the crowd for their vision and dedication, which has transformed countless lives in Orange County.

The event was helmed by the dedicated MaryLou Shattuck, a longtime board member whose commitment shone through every detail, along with her hard-working committee, including fellow board members Kate Domagala, Mike Gilmore, Shelly Vercure, and none other than TV's Chef Jamie Gwen. This year's Western gala had a special significance, being the first led by SPIN's new Executive Director, David Wetzel, whose passion for community service is evident. Formerly an executive in the fast-food industry, Wetzel's decision to pivot towards helping those in need brought fresh energy and new ideas to the organization. He worked hand in hand with Ladeshia Goubert, SPIN's Manager of Donors and Volunteer Services, to ensure a seamless night.

The evening began with cocktails and hors d'oeuvres enjoyed under the al fresco charm of Strawberry Farms' scenic setting. Guests mingled outside the Red Barn, with cowboy guitar strumming in the background and a converted trailer-turned-traveling beer bar serving up cold drinks. There were smiles all around as the sun dipped below the green hills, and guests like David and Emily Plourde, Lorie and Jim Buchanan, Chika and Dee Okam, and Maureen Flannagan made the most of the reception, perusing the extensive silent auction. The auction featured everything from travel and fashion to spirits and jewelry—all generously donated by Bloomingdale's, Wm. Harold Jewelers, The Cannery, Balboa Bay Resort, and many more.

Curtis Scheetz and his wife Jill, the gala's presenting sponsor, made a major impact with their company TEM-Total Environmental, offering a generous match that inspired the crowd to give with even greater pride. The Scheetz family joined other prominent donors, including Charlie Granville, Rachel Owens, and the Thomas and Misako Yuen Family Foundation, all of whom ensured the evening's success.

As the barn doors swung open, guests took their seats at tables adorned in blue and white gingham cloths, brightened by magnificent sunflower centerpieces. It was the perfect setting for a delightful dinner prepared by Strawberry Farms, complete with butter cake and See's chocolate candies for dessert—a truly sweet ending to a heartwarming night.

The evening's entertainment was fronted by Grammy-nominated country-western artist Steven Cade, who traveled from Memphis with his family. Cade is not only known for his music but also for his philanthropic "Giving Guitar" initiative, through which he donates guitars to deserving young people. The emotional highlight of the evening came when Cade presented two guitars to a pair of young sisters from a SPIN-supported family—a gesture that brought many in the crowd to tears and earned a thunderous standing ovation. In recognition of his kindness and contributions, Cade was awarded SPIN's 2024 Jean Wegener Humanitarian Award.

The program transitioned seamlessly to the incomparable Chef Jamie Gwen, who took to the stage as emcee. Gwen's warmth and passion for the cause were infectious as she encouraged attendees to give generously. Thanks to her efforts and the inspiring "match" from Curtis and Jill Scheetz, SPIN secured vital funds for their 2025 programs.

Steven Cade returned to the stage for a spirited performance that had the crowd on their feet. As the barn filled with joyful line dancing, the energy was electric, the perfect ending to a memorable night. By the time the lights dimmed and the last boots shuffled off the dance floor, more than $350,000 had been raised—a testament to the community's unwavering support for SPIN's life-changing work. Directory Advertising Hits the Jackpot for Small Business with a Limited Ad Budget $49.95

"I'm not a big business, but I know that you have to advertise someplace and these little ads don't cost too much so I figure if you expect to get any new customers, I gave the little 'directory' ads in the newspaper a try. Nothing happened for the first week, not even a phone call. Then Boom! comes three new customers. Paid for my little ads and a nice profit. I'd say I hit the jackpot. Sign me up for another week newspaper ladies!"

The above story may not be exciting but is typical of advertisers who are shopping for advertising that is affordable but gives them something back for their money. Here's another:

As a Woman Who Owns A Small Business These Newspaper Directory Ads are a Great Value

"We women have to work harder to make a small business grow. Thanks to small, affordable ads in this newspaper I've got ads running every week. Every call helps my business grow. I give you an A+ for good prices and steady results."

Looking for the Penny Saver in all the Wrong Places

"I Used to get pretty good results from the Penny Saver, but when the Penny Saver closed up, I found this newspaper's little directory ads are even cheaper and work just about as good. Usually get two or three calls a month and most of them wind up being my customers. My bookkeeper says your directory ads work pretty good for the money"

Newspaper Directory Ads Worked Just Fine, Cost Less than Half! Nice!

"We tried some slick magazine ads that had beautiful pictures on the cover and they worked real good for a while but they were costing us an arm and a leg so we tried these little directory ads in your newspaper. The ads are smaller, but cost way less than half of what we were paying the magazines and the newspaper directory ads seem to work about as well. We are glad we tried them. They are a pretty good deal for the low price."

New Business Owner Likes Lower Priced Ads

"I Just Started my New Business and Happy that I Can Afford Your Newspaper Directory Ads. I need to attract new customers and these ads are priced just right."

FESTIVE FOODS FOR YOUR DOG THIS HOLIDAY SEASON

Bring on the list-making, gift-giving, party-going time of year. The holiday season would also feel incomplete without delicious dishes to keep everyone feeling merry and bright. By everyone, that includes canine companions, too.

Consider this list of pup- and pet-parent-approved festive foods, as well as those to avoid, from the experts at Petcurean, makers of premium quality, nutrient-rich food for pets:

Enjoy steamed vegetables: Holiday feasts are all about the side dishes. Dogs can savor their own sides with plain vegetables like steamed green beans or carrots, making for a flavorful, nutritious addition to their meals. Vegetables are packed with vitamins and minerals, and steaming them allows more of the nutrients to be retained while also supporting proper digestion. Be sure to chop veggies into small pieces and stay clear of seasoning or sauce.

Avoid chocolate: There's no way to sugarcoat it – chocolate is a no-go for dogs. The presence of both caffeine and a chemical called theobromine makes chocolate toxic to dogs because they aren't able to metabolize them the way humans can. If ingested, chocolate can lead to a spike in heart rate and blood pressure, as well as vomiting, diarrhea, agitation, seizures and more. If ingested, pet parents should monitor their pup closely and check with a veterinarian.

Enjoy fresh meats: When cooked, fresh meat such as chicken, turkey, pork or beef can satisfy cravings while also offering pups a nutritious meal that is easy to digest. Pet parents can also choose a kibble made with fresh meats as a convenient option that supports dogs' overall wellness, such as Now Fresh Good Gravy, which is made with easily digested fresh meats and nutrient-dense fruits and veggies, and by adding water, a delicious bone broth gravy is created for your pup to enjoy.

Avoid table scraps: For many reasons, it's best to skip the table scraps. Not only could an allergen or toxin be present that pet parents may not be aware of, there are several other health risks associated with feeding dogs table scraps, such as digestive issues (vomiting, diarrhea, etc.) and even more serious problems like pancreatitis. Plus, giving dogs calorie-dense food can contribute to obesity.

Enjoy pumpkin: A staple of holiday feasts, pumpkin is not off the table for pups to enjoy. In fact, pumpkin is a superfood full of nutrients. Feeding dogs cooked or plain canned pumpkin can also be beneficial for their digestion because pumpkin contains fiber – just be sure to serve it free of seasonings like sugar and spices.

Just like their pet parents, pups deserve to indulge a little over the holidays, but it's important to ensure what they eat leaves them feeling great. Remember to always check with a veterinarian about any concerns, especially when introducing new foods, and visit nowfresh.com to find personalized nutrition crafted for your pet.
